Replacement Supply Options

What Priya's team could find in the first hour. Prices as quoted; availability not guaranteed.

1. Mid-Atlantic Foodservice (conventional distributor)

Rep: Dan Kowalski. Truck slot held. Order cutoff for 3:45 PM delivery: 2:45 PM. After that, only a wedged order by 3:00 PM at a higher surcharge. Product is conventional, wild-caught or domestic. It is not local and cannot be labeled local.

TONIGHT'S NEED, ALL THREE KITCHENS	QTY	UNIT	AMOUNT
Flounder, Atlantic wild	140 lb	$17.00	$2,380
Rockfish	55 lb	$15.00	$825
Chicken, air-chilled conventional	230 lb	$4.50	$1,035
Pork, conventional	260 lb	$4.20	$1,092
Beef, prime	136 lb	$24.00	$3,264
BASE			$8,596
Rush, ordered by 2:45 PM (+30%)			$11,175
Late wedge, ordered by 3:00 PM (+45%)			$12,464

Saturday and Sunday: standard delivery if ordered by 6:00 PM tonight. About $21,300 for both days, no surcharge.

2. Hockessin Hollow Farm (local, small)

Owner: Marta Whitcomb. Can supply roughly 15 to 20% of tonight's protein need: chicken and pork. Delivery 4:30 PM. Cash on delivery. About 40% above Brandywine's price. She will allow the group to name her farm on the menu, as long as it's honest.

3. Captain Ellis Dunn (Delaware Bay dock)

Approximately 60 lb flounder and 25 lb rockfish at $22/lb. Cash only. Truck for Riverfront by 4:15 PM if he leaves within minutes. Cold snap has made Bay flounder scarce this week.

4. What you already have

Vegetables, dairy, eggs, grains, dessert components and wine from other local sources are fully stocked at all three locations. Vegetable-forward dishes can be built from stock.
